The HPNA will update you all on the updates on proposed traffic route changes for the downtown area, including a proposed plan for a Jersey Avenue extension into Liberty State Park.

8:45 to 9:00 General HPNA Community Updates

9:00 - 9:30 Neighborhood social time, chat with presenters.

Announcements and up coming events

ESL Program at the Pavonia Branch of the JC Library

As a result of its continued success, due in large part to the volunteer efforts of many of our neighbors, especially Brigid Cahalan, the Pavonia Branch of the Jersey City Free Public Library will continue its conversation groups for intermediate-level speakers of English. Lessons will take place on Wednesday evenings, 6:45-7:45 P.M., through out May and June. They will be seeking enthusiastic and dependable volunteers of native or near-native English fluency. If interested please contact the Branch Manager Patricia Mehnert @ 201-547-4808.

HPNA Archiving Project at Pavonia Branch Library

Many thanks to all who have helped in our last two work sessions on the HPNA Archiving project. While we have made significant progress in our last two work sessions, there is still much to be done. If you are interested in helping out one evening a week, please contact, Janice Monson via e-mail at cowmowsow@aol.com Please put HPNA Archive in the subject line. Of course you could express your interest in person at our HPNA meeting.
